Admissions to:
- Molecular, Cellular, Developmental Biology and Genetics (MCDB&G)
- Biochemistry, Molecular Biology and Biophysics (BMBB)

Application Checklist

Print out this checklist and use it for your reference as you complete your application through the online system of the Graduate School Admissions Office:

http://www.grad.umn.edu/admissions

Please reference Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) for more detailed information and helpful suggestions about the admissions process and timeline.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Required Material</th>
<th>Description &amp; Instructions</th>
<th>Check when uploaded ✓</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Online Application | Select proposed major:
- Biochemistry, Molecular Biology and Biophysics PhD
 OR
- Molecular, Cellular Developmental Biology and Genetics PhD
Complete the following required fields:
- Personal information
- Application information
- Educational Background
- Languages
- Awards & Activities
- Employment/Residence Information Applicant
- Statement #1
Optional
- Upload your CV, resume, Statement #2, and/or more info |
| Application Fee
Cannot be waived for any reason | US Citizen/Permanent Resident: $75
International: $95 |
| Transcripts
Do not mail paper copies! | Upload transcripts directly to Educational Background section.
Note: International students must also upload an English translation if transcript is not in English. |
| Three Letters of Recommendation | Enter names and contact information for three referees. Referees will be sent instructions via email for uploading letters. Referees should upload letters directly to your online application. |
| GRE Scores | GRE General and Subject scores are no longer required |
| TOEFL, IELTS
International students only | Send scores to:
- Department code: 74 or 34 |