

BIOL 3051 Genome Editing and Engineering

Interested in the cutting-edge CRISPR genome editing and engineering technologies and their applications; want to design your first CRISPR and watch it in action; curious about the implications and ethics of these technologies? Check out this new class in Spring 2022.

Instructors: Kyle Costa and Feng Zhang

Prerequisites: Foundations of Biology I and II (BIOL 1951/1951H and BIOL 2003/2003H) or Biol 1009 or BMEN 2501